

Librarians as Learning Specialists

Allison Zmuda

Author, Consultant, National and International Speaker

Librarians as Learning Specialists, The Competent Classroom, Transforming Schools: Creating a Culture of Continuous Improvement

The dynamic Allison Zmuda will explore the increasing number of job descriptions in schools for learning specialists with the accompanying difficulty in effectively leveraging the roles to positively affect student learning. Grant Wiggins' foreword of her book Librarians as Learning Specialists emphasizes the relevance of learning specialists is grounded in their ability to deliver results on mission-critical measures. This workshop incorporates quotations, exemplars, and findings from experts in both mainstream and librarian-focused education literature. It will provide accessible and credible arguments for any library learning specialist charged with increasing the library's ability to improve student achievement.
